TRANSPORT

|------------------------------|--|
| - Sri Lankan air taxi | Cross-country journeys are now a scenic joy, rather than a bumpy road trip. The journey to Anuradhapura is now just 45 minutes, instead of five hours by road or rail. www.srilankan.aero |
| - Taxi | Radio cars can be called by telephone and are very good value. The minimum charge is Rs30 per kilometer. Other taxis are available, but are not metered, so it is wise to agree on the fare. Cabs from the airport taxi counter at Bandaranaike International Airport cost from Rs 1,000 – 1,500 for the journey into Colombo. Other taxi counters may charge more. Always ask. |
| - Hire Cars | Self-drive hire cars are readily available, but if it's your first time here, consider hiring a car and driver from the counters at the airport or from your hotel. Drivers offer excellent insight into the island and great flexibility, staying in dedicated drivers' rooms at the same hotel(s) as you. |
| - Tuk-tuks | You've not been to Sri Lanka if you've not travelled in a tuk-tuk. Rs20-30 per km. Bargain for the best prices. |
| - Trains | Many places of interest are served by trains from Colombo Fort station. |
| - Buses | A comprehensive network covering the island with express services between principal towns. Can get crowded. |
